

Executive Roundtable for Registrars and COOs Co-Hosted with the University of York, 1-2 February 2024

Bringing together senior university leaders to discuss shared challenges with peers and EAB experts in a focused, uninterrupted setting

Meeting Location

University of York

Attendee Profile

For this session, EAB welcomes COOs and Registrars from universities across the UK, Ireland, and the Nordics.

Registration Details

Registration information available here.

For additional queries, contact EAB at Events@eab.com.

DAY ONE – 1 February 2024

- 12:30 Guest Arrival and Lunch
- 13:30 Postcards from Campus
- Cross-table discussion based on successes and challenges at each attendee's institution
- 15:00 Global HE Forecast: Trends Changing How We Teach, Work, and Operate in 2024
- Responding to shifts in international enrolment patterns and demographics
 - Securing competitive advantage through a more strategic approach to talent management
 - Evolving student experience expectations in the wake of generational and societal shifts
 - Leveraging campus space for priorities related to innovation, sustainability, and more
- 18:00 Cocktail Reception and Dinner
- To be hosted at SORA and transportation will be provided from campus to venue.

DAY TWO – 2 February 2024

- 08:00 Breakfast
- 09:00 Does AI Dream of Electric Universities? What Every HE Leader Needs to Know
- Sizing the potential impact of AI on curricula, student support services, research, and more
 - Dispelling common – and dangerous – misconceptions about AI
 - Engaging the senior management team in assessing the potential risks and rewards of AI
 - Profiles of institutions already experimenting with AI applications across campus
- 12:30 Adjournment